Case No. 5:11-cv-05257-PSG

STIPULATED REQUEST TO CONTINUE
CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE
AND RELATED DEADLINES;
[PROPOSED] ORDER

Complaint Filed: October 28, 2011
Trial Date: None Set

Pursuant to Civil Local Rules 7-12 and 16-2, plaintiffs Edsel Palma, Steven Wrachford, Tomas Toral, and Jose Pena (collectively "Plaintiffs") and defendant Williams Tank Lines ("Defendant"), specially appearing, hereby respectfully request that the Initial Case Management Conference scheduled for December 13, 2011 at 2:00 p.m. and all deadlines related

1 to that conference be continued for sixty (60) days to allow the Plaintiffs time to complete their 2 substitution of counsel and to then allow the Parties time to complete their obligations related to 3 meeting and conferring per Rule 26(f), filing a case management conference statement and 4 preparing for initial disclosures. Furthermore, pursuant to Local Rule 16-2(a), the Initial Case
 5 Management Conference should not be set for at least 90 days after the filing of the complaint. In 6 this case, the Initial Case Management Conference was erroneously set for just 46 days after the 7 filing of the Complaint—denying the Parties of the opportunity to adequately prepare for the 8 Initial Case Management Conference.

9                   On October 28, 2011, Plaintiff's filed their complaint, by and through their counsel
 10 of record, Michael L. Tracy. Plaintiff's served Defendant on November 1, 2011, and Defendant's 11 responsive pleading was originally due on November 23, 2011. Shortly before the Answer
 12 became due, Plaintiffs sought to obtain new counsel—Morris Nazarian. To allow Plaintiffs time 13 to sort out representation and issues related to their Complaint, the Parties stipulated that 14 Defendants would have until December 8, 2011 to file a responsive pleading—a 15-day 15 extension. Because the Plaintiffs continue to seek a substitution of counsel, the Parties are 16 unprepared for the upcoming Case Management Conference statement. The Parties do not 17 anticipate being able to meaningfully participate at the present case management conference on 18 December 13, 2011.

19                   The Parties have not requested a prior continuance of the Case Management 20 Conference and related deadlines. The Parties expect that the requested extension of the date for 21 the Initial Case Management Conference will have no adverse effect on the schedule for the case.
 22 No trial date or other deadlines have yet been set. The continuance of the Case Management 23 Conference would promote judicial efficiency as the Parties will likely be able to more 24 meaningfully participate in the case management conference after Plaintiffs' complete their 25 substitution of counsel and the parties are then able to address the preparations and obligations
 26 associated with preparing for the Initial Case Management Conference and all deadlines 27 associated therewith.

13 [PROPOSED] ORDER

14 Based upon the foregoing Stipulated Request to Continue Case Management
15 Conference and Related Deadlines, the Court orders the continuance of the Initial Case 16 Management Conference to February 14, 2012. All deadlines related to 17 the Initial Case Management Conference are continued based on the new date for the Initial Case
18 Management Conference.
